FOR THE POST OF
Learning Development
Teacher

CHEAM | Overview

Cheam is a wonderful co-educational prep school on the Berkshire/Hampshire border. The school is situated in a stunning rural location ten minutes from Newbury and fifteen minutes from Basingstoke, just off the A339. It is surrounded by smaller towns and villages from which it draws many of its pupils.

Cheam was founded in 1645 and is one of the oldest prep schools in the world. Cheam is an IAPS boarding and day school with some 375 pupils, boys, and girls. Cheam prides itself on its excellent all-round record academically, musically, artistically and on the sports field. The facilities are outstanding. On completing their life at Cheam, children move on to the top Public Schools in England, including Eton, Wellington, Marlborough, Radley, Harrow, Winchester, Bradfield and St. Mary's Calne. The school is non-selective yet achieves consistently high standards academically.

Learning Development Teacher

An outstanding opportunity has arisen to join the team as a full time and inspirational Learning Development Teacher

This post will play a vital role in one of the strongest departments within the school, working alongside other Learning Development Teachers and the Head of Learning Development. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching and supporting pupils on the SEND register. We expect the successful candidate to plan Individual Intervention Plans and follow these, teaching a range of neurodiverse pupils, equipping them with strategies to enable them to independently achieve their own potential in the classroom. In addition, it would be desirable if the candidate could conduct 'in house' assessments for access arrangements and pupil profiling. The department currently has a wealth of experience and ability on which to draw and we wish to seek a passionate, enthusiastic and supportive individual, who can share their expertise and support the wider school staff. Cheam supports a diverse range of learners and we strive to support neurodiversity to ensure all learners achieve and excel.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Key Skills Required

We are looking for someone with the following skills, knowledge and experience:

- Level 5 SpLD certified
